THE WEEKLY NEWS AND CHRONICLE.

Each Number of this old established and thoroughly Liberal Journal contains a carefully prepared Summary of Intelligence interesting to the Peer, the Professional Man, the Tradesman, and the Mechanic. Every incident affecting the Political and Social Progress of the People is recorded, and a selection given for the especial entertainment of the Family Circle. The Gossip of the Clubs and the Chit-chat of the Day. Reviews of New Books and Dramatic Critiques. Notes each week for Emigrants. Together with a variety of News not to be found in any other Journal.

Weekly News and Chronicle Office, 337, Strand, London.

March 1st 1853.

My dear Madam,

I am in receipt of yours. I have sent all through the trade but cannot get the Nos of the "Peoples Journal" although I was able to give the Nos and all information about it, but as it is for one who will make

Mo.A.9.2.27.11A

a better use of the matter than I am able to do. I herewith send My own Copy.
And if you can transmit the Volumes. well!
If not Cut out the portion you require in short use it as if it were your own.

I am yours
very truly
J. J. Loeder

Let me have the remainder back if of no
use to you

Mo.A.9.2.27.11A